The Hong Kong Association of Art Therapists

Announces the following meaningful art therapy workshop:

FOUND OBJECTS AND PORTABLE STUDIO

During this experiential workshop and talk we will explore the possibilities for the use of found objects in art therapy. We will discuss our concept of ‘portable studio’ in contexts of political violence, social change and deprivation and examine the role found objects have played within this practice. Participants are requested to bring up to five objects they find on their journey to the session on April 11th.

Please see details as follows:
